August 2017

Dear Democratic Women Presidents and DWNC Executive Committee,

I encourage you to read the attachments about the policies and application for nominating one of your chapter members to receive the 2017 DWNC Woman of the Year award. A committee will review the nominations carefully. The deadline for submission of applications is August 11.

It is a double honor to each person who receives the award. In addition to being the recipient, it is a special honor to be nominated by your own chapter. In your group there are leaders, hard workers, and women who consistently say “Yes!” to calls for help from Democratic Women and the Democratic Party. Consider nominating a Democratic woman who fulfills the qualifications.

Sincerely,

Betty Anderson

Chair,

2017 Women of the Year Award Committee

DEMOCRATIC WOMEN OF NORTH CAROLINA
WOMAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

POLICY

The nominee for the Woman of the Year should be an active member of Democratic Women in good standing for a minimum of five years. The nominee should have served Democratic Women at the county, district, and state level and have held an office at one of these levels in an elected or appointed leadership role.

The Woman of the Year Committee Chair shall send a nomination form with a stated return deadline to all club Presidents and DWNC Executive Board members. Individuals or groups will return the completed form by the stated deadline and will include biographical information reflecting the nominee's county, regional, and state level activities and outstanding service to her community.

Each year, the DWNC President will appoint a selection committee of three DWNC members. The previous year's winner will chair the committee. The committee will review the nominations and select the DWNC member to receive the award. The past recipient of the award is responsible for purchasing the award and making the presentation at the State Convention.
